At St. Vitus School Dedication

Blessing services at the entrance to the new St. Vitus parochial school during ceremonies Sunday afternoon. The services were conducted by Bishop Dearden of Pittsburgh.

Rev. Father Thomas Quigley, Diocesan superintendent of schools, delivers the principal address at the St. Vitus parish dedication. Dedication Of St. Vitus School Occurs Sunday

Inspiring Program Takes Place At New School Site

With the blessing conferred by His Excellency, The Most Rev. John Francis Dearden, Bishop of the Pittsburgh diocese, the new St. Vitus parochial school was officially dedicated on Sunday, July 15, 1951.

The elaborate and inspiring ceremonies took place on the site of the new school, South Jefferson street, between Maitland and Home street, Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m.

Regitation of the litany of the saints was held in St. Vitus church shortly after the ceremonies started. The procession including acolytes, members of the clergy of Lawrence county and many from out of town, then proceeded to the school, where Bishop Dearden officiated at the blessing outside of the school and inside.

Officers Of Ceremony

Bishop John Francis Dearden was the celebrant of the ceremonies. He was assisted by former parishoners of St. Vitus church, now members of the clergy: Rev. Fr. Nicholas Biondi, pastor of Regina Coeli church, Pittsburgh, Pa., as deacon; Rev. Fr. Joseph A. Mastrangelo, pastor of St. Lawrence church, Hillsville, Pa., as sub-deacon; and masters of ceremonies: Rev. Fr. Richard Paluse, assistant pastor of the B.V.M. church, Ellwood City; and Rev. Fr. Joseph Kopecky, assistant chaplain of the chancellor, Pittsburgh. The latter replaced Fr. Francis Ginoch, a former parishoner, who was unable to attend.

Shrine Is Blessed

The scene of Our Lady of Fatima—when the Blessed Virgin Mary approached three children in Fatima, Portugal, imploring them to pray the rosary for Peace in the World—is located between the new school and the St. Vitus church. This beautiful shrine was blessed during impressive services conducted by Bishop Dearden, with the first grade students and the Sodality participating.

Immediately after the dedication, the commander of the New Castle Veterans Council, Edward A. DeCarbo extended greetings in behalf of the Council and introduced the commander of the New Castle Catholic War Veterans Post 741, Orlando Lucidore.

In behalf of the Post, a huge American flag was presented to the school. "I consider it a great honor to participate in this happy occasion," Commander Lucidore stated. The flag was raised while the Red Coat band, under the direction of B. J. Biondi, played the Star Spangled Banner. Another flag, also donated by the Post, will be placed inside the school.

Fr. Inteso Presides

Presiding at the dedication service was Rev. Fr. Albert M. Inteso, assistant pastor who has worked diligently with the other assistant.

Ground Action Is Decreasing In Korea Areas

Heavy Rains Sweep Over Korean Warfront; U.S. Warships Active

By DON NIXON

(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

EIGHTH U.S. ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, July 16.

Heavy rains swept over the Korean waterfront today where ground action was reported decreasing, apparently keeping pace with the harmonious tenor of resumed cease-fire talks.

During the night, Allied light B-26 bombers blasted airfields in Red Korea and also hit a big Communist supply center. Piercing the heavy weather with radar, the bombers destroyed or damaged at least 60 enemy vehicles.

Patrol Skirmishes

Ground action Sunday was marked by patrol skirmishes and the Eighth Army reported that enemy resistance was light.

Some Allied officers expressed the belief to frontline correspondents that the Communists are prepared to launch a 72-division attack if the cease-fire negotiations break down completely. Normally a Red division in Korea is estimated at between 8,000 and 10,000 soldiers. This potential attacking force therefore would total as many as 720,000 men.

Officers pointed that indications of a Red buildup have been noted on the East Korean coast.

Red-held east coast ports were pounded by Allied warships and carrier-borne planes Sunday. The warships plastered Red targets with more than 500 rounds of high explosives.

House Seeks To Speed Action On New Controls

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(INS)—House leaders opened a drive today to complete new controls legislation this week as voting neared on important price and wage stabilization provisions.

Chairman Spence (D) Ky., of the House banking and currency committee, sponsor of the legislation drafted by his group, forecast longer daily sessions in an effort to speed up action.

Becoming Perturbed

Democratic leaders, including House Speaker Rayburn (D) Tex., are becoming perturbed over the slow pace. A temporary 31-day extension was voted by Congress last month to keep controls from expiring June 30.

The Senate passed its controls measure June 29, but House and Senate conferees must have time in which to reconcile substantial differences in the two bills and draft a completed measure.

The compromise must then be acted upon by both Houses before being sent to President Truman.

Meanwhile, administration supporters braced themselves for new defeats as the House reached the section of the 84-page bill which covers price and wage controls.

During the past week the House voted upon measures aimed at boosting defense production and before that spent two days debating the entire measure.

U.S. Orders Two Hungarian Diplomats To Leave U.S.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(INS)—The state department retaliated today for the expulsion of two Americans from Budapest and asked two Hungarian diplomats to leave the U. S.

The diplomats, Lajos Nagy, second secretary and charge d'affaires, and Peter Varkonyi, attaché, were declared "persona non grata" (not acceptable).

A department spokesman declined to call the ousters retaliatory but it was understood they were the direct result of summary action taken by the Communist regime in Hungary against two Americans in the U. S. legation a week ago.

The Americans, Albert W. Sherer, Jr., second secretary, and Ruth Tryon, head of the U. S. information service in Hungary, crossed the border into Austria a few minutes ahead of a deadline imposed by the Communist government.

No such deadline has been set by the United States, but Nagy and Varkonyi are expected to leave as soon as it is practicable. A government has no choice but to withdraw any nationals declared persona non grata by another power.

KANSAS CITY, KANSAS.—Here are the men who saved the light and water plants Kansas City by refusing to bow to flood threat of the Missouri river as it lapped at the top of dikes protecting the city's utility plants. Flood Begins To Recede In Kansas City

Flood Menace Is Growing For Cities Along Missouri River

By BOB ROUSEK

(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 16.—Flames from a million gallons of burning oil were said to have been brought under control today in flood stricken Kansas City. The rampaging Kaw, Kansas and Missouri rivers were receding in a welcome development to the weary and homeless in Kansas City, Mo., and Kansas City, Kan.

But the menace of other floods grew greater hourly as the Missouri river began pushing into cities and towns all the way to the Mississippi above St. Louis.

The steadily rising Mississippi itself was creeping into industrial plants on the St. Louis waterfront.

More Friendly Atmosphere Is Now Reported

Delegates Are Still Seeking To Agree On Parley Agenda

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN

(Far Eastern Director, U. S. S.)

UN TRUCE CAMP NEAR KAESONG, July 17.—(Tuesday)—Allied and Red delegates, meeting in what was officially termed a "more friendly" atmosphere cleared of armed men, approached closer Monday to agreement on the subject matter of the Korean truce conference.

An Allied communique on the fourth armistice meeting at Kaesong, which adjourned more than two hours earlier than scheduled, declared Monday night:

"The United Nations command delegation reports some progress was made in the formation of a mutually agreed upon agenda."

The announcement, issued at eight p. m. (six a. m. EDT), added that "the communists have fulfilled the agreement with respect to the neutrality of the conference site in that no armed personnel were observed" in the Kaesong area.

To Meet Tonight

The five-man UN delegation prepared meanwhile to return to the "armistice city" from the allied truce camp for a fifth meeting slated to begin at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning (nine p. m. Monday EDT).

An allied briefing officer at the camp, 15 miles southeast of Kaesong, told correspondents shortly before midnight Monday:

"Everyone was more friendly today than ever before."

Hunt Elected 'Cootie' Head

Local V.F.W. Member Given State Honor

George E. Hunt, of Euclid avenue, past commander of Neshannock Post No. 315, V. F. W., was elected grand commander of the Order of the Cooties at the 32nd annual encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, held in Philadelphia last week.

The signal honor accorded Mr. Hunt is recognition of his untiring effort in V. F. W. leadership and in veterans affairs.

Hunt, a veteran of World War One, was commander of Erie Post No. 470, V. F. W., before coming to New Castle some years ago, and he continued his interest in V. F. W. work after coming here, serving the local post as commander in 1944-45.

He is also a past commander of the Veterans Council and active in all local veterans activities.

William Spink, of Philadelphia, was elected senior vice commander of the Cooties, and Don Edwards, of Phillipsburg, junior vice commander.

It's just an old tradition, with a touch of superstition, that on St. Swithin's Day if it should rain, for forty days to follow, we'll be in a moisty wallow and daily showers will come back again. So St. Swithin's Day is by us and the rain man did not try us with a drop of rain to moisten up the grass, so we'll know right soon I reckon if J. Pluvius will beckon, or if the superstition soon will pass. For we're in for forty dry ones, if it doesn't rain as old time prophets say, so sit back and do the scoring, if you find it not too boring, for it's plenty hot and eighty-eight today.

Refuses Cash Bail For Mystery Writer Dashiell Hammett

NEW YORK, July 16.—(INS)—Federal Judge Sylvester Ryan refused today to accept $10,000 cash bond offered in behalf of mystery writer Dashiell Hammett when the author's secretary, Muriel Alexander, would not divulge the origin of the money.

Hammett, an official of the civil rights congress, was given a six month contempt sentence last week for declining to name CRC bail fund contributors. He has been in jail since Wednesday.

Meanwhile, the 14 indicted "second-string" Communist leaders who are free on CRC bail faced a possible return to jail. Judge Ryan "remanded the leaders last week, but was reversed by Circuit Judge Learned Hand, who ordered them continued in CRC bond.

Their fight to remain out on bail was shaken by a ruling in still another federal court.

This was in the deportation case of Peter Harnissides, who has been at liberty on a $5,000 CRC bail bond. Harnissides has been ordered deported because of alleged former membership in the Communist party.

Federal Judge Holtzoff ordered his bail revoked, declaring, "I believe the so-called bail fund of the civil rights congress should not be accepted as surety in this court. I doubt the validity of the surety's obligation since there was no disclosure of the owners of the cash."

It was the refusal of Hammett and two other CRC trustees to name contributors to the fund which brought their contempt sentences from Judge Ryan.

An Eighth Army briefing officer reported that enemy activity has increased on the western front near the site of cease-fire talks at Kaesong. The Communists have agreed to neutralize a 78-mile square area around the armistice city.

Reds More in Evidence
But south of Kaesong, the briefing officer said, an estimated enemy regiment was spotted Sunday. He added that Red troops are more in evidence than before just outside the neutral zone.

These Red troops south of Kaesong threw mortar and long-range machine gun fire at Allied patrols, on the central front south of Kumsong where Allied troops staged a series of "limited objective" attacks over the weekend, the Reds counter attacked in close-quarter fighting. The action was inconclusive.

C.I.O. Opposes Sales Tax And Further Excise Tax Levies
WASHINGTON, July 16.—(INS)—The CIO today opposed a federal sales tax and any further increase in excise levies.

Stanley H. Ruttenberg, director of the CIO's Department of Education and research, told the Senate finance committee in a prepared statement that a sales tax bears "most heavily" upon "those least able to pay."

Ruttenberg said that advocates of a sales tax claim that higher taxes on low income groups are "highly justified" because "all Americans out to readily accept a lower standard of living as a contribution" to national defense. He added:

"To increase further the taxes upon these individuals simply will deprive them of the ability to buy goods that are essential to a healthy and decent existence."

Ruttenberg said that tax deficits could be made up by imposing higher rates on corporations, middle and high income groups and closing loopholes in the present law.

FLOOD BEGINS TO REcede IN KANSAS CITY

worst in the history of the United States. Twenty three persons have lost their lives.

A roaring inferno of floating oil which started four days ago in the Kansas City, Mo., industrial area destroyed at least 17 buildings in a seven block area and damaged four. Two lumber companies reported huge losses and from 20 to 30 large oil tankers were destroyed.

Firemen said the oil blaze was finally contained in a small area and were confident it would soon burn itself out.

More Than Million Gallons Afire
Fire chief Harvey Baldwin of Kansas City, Mo., said "conditions are the best in 24 hours" and added "we are waiting for the fire to burn itself out."

More than one million gallons of oil burned out of control for nearly eight hours yesterday and firemen finally checked the flames just before midnight.

Explosions rocked the area during the four-day fire which began Friday afternoon. The newest eruptions came as firemen battled for the ninth time that they had the conflagration under control. Twelve firefighters suffered minor injuries but all remained on duty after receiving first aid.

While the flood-battered twin cities learned the worst was over, the Missouri river began pushing into cities and towns all the way to the Mississippi above St. Louis.

The steadily rising Mississippi was creeping into industrial plants on the St. Louis waterfront.

At least 23 persons have died and many more are missing in the flood-ravaged areas. Estimates of damage have exceeded the billion dollar mark.

The Missouri river dropped two feet from the all time high of 36.2 feet reached Saturday and army engineers warned that soggy levees often give way while the water pressure against them is dropping.

Oak Wilt Makes Reappearance In Pennsylvania

HARRISBURG, July 16.—(INS)

—Reappearance of oak wilt in Pennsylvania has touched off a preventive campaign by state technicians.

Agriculture Secretary Miles Horst reports discovery of the disease in a suburb of Pittsburgh. Oak trees which become infected are destroyed by the disease.

Horst said tests are being run on "very suspicious" samples from an area southwest of Pittsburgh and from Mifflin county.

The first infestation of oak wilt east of Ohio was observed in Mifflin county last September.

Trees affected by the disease are cut down and burned and the roots killed with poison under the direction of the State Bureau of Plant Industry.

Seriousness of the disease is indicated by the fact that oaks make up about 60 per cent of the deciduous forest trees in Pennsylvania.

W. R. ANDERSONS HAVE 25th WEDDING

Mrs. Richard Acheson Warren, nee Marjorie Anderson, of West Middlesex, Pa., and William B. Anderson, entertained at an open house celebration honoring the silver (25th) wedding anniversary of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Anderson, 1313 Neshannock boulevard, Sunday, July 15, at the Anderson home.

Refreshments were served, buffet style, to the guests, with a lovely floral centerpiece decorating the table, which was beautifully appointed in a pink and white color scheme. Assisting Mrs. Warren in serving were Mrs. Floyd Matthews, Mrs. Fay Ferguson and Miss Barbara Sarchett, all of Sharon, and Mrs. Edward Hoagland of Farrell.

The principals were the recipients of many attractive gifts, floral tributes and congratulatory messages in honor of the special occasion.

The former Miss Virginia Louise Berry of Johnstown was married to W. R. Anderson in Blairsville, Pa., by Rev. Lloyd on July 15, 1926. Mrs. Anderson is a teacher in the New Castle schools, while Mr. Anderson is associated with the Veterans' Administration in Pittsburgh.

KUS-KUS-KA CHAPTER FETES STATE REGENT

Members of Kus-Kus-Ka Chapter, Daughters of the American Colonists, entertained at luncheon at The Castleton on Saturday in honor of Mrs. John Edgar Hires of Wayne, Pa., State Regent of the organization. Mrs. Hires is the house guest of Mrs. W. W. Campbell of New Wilmington.

An informal discussion of state and local problems was conducted by Mrs. Hires, following the luncheon; plans were also made for the State Assembly to be held at York, Pa., on October 12, 13 and 14. Several members of the local chapter will attend the assembly as delegates.

Magee Reunion

The annual reunion of the Magee family will take place on Saturday, July 21 at the Community Park in Grove City. Dinner will be served at noon.

JAMES-BEATRICE NUPTIAL VOWS

The marriage of Miss Sally Marie James, New Galilee, R.D. 1, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Shallenberger, New Galilee, R.D. 1, to Joseph A. Beatrice, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Beatrice Sr., Wampum, R.D. 2, took place Friday, July 13, at 8 p.m., at the home of Rev. W. E. Minter, minister of the Wampum Presbyterian church. The double ring ceremony was used.

The bride wore an aqua dress with white accessories and had a rhinestone necklace and a corsage of white fleur d'Amour.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Shallenberger attended the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Beatrice will live at New Galilee, R.D. 1, when they return from a wedding trip.

The bride attended the Beaver Falls high school and is employed as a stenographer at the Beaver Falls Candy & Cigar Company. The groom attended Wampum high school and at present is a student at the Allegheny School of Technicians in Pittsburgh. He is also employed by the Record Shop, Ellwood City.

MARY HELEN KENNY NAMES BRIDAL DATE

Miss Mary Helen Kenny has chosen Saturday, July 21, as the date for her marriage to Richard Mark Phelan, son of Dr. R. M. Phelan, Sharon. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kenny of Enon Valley.

The young couple will exchange their solemn wedding vows at 10 o'clock, in St. Monica's church, Wampum, with open church to be observed.

A reception will be held from two to five p.m. at the home of the bride's parents, where the newlyweds will be glad to welcome all their friends and neighbors.

Pantherette Club

Pantherette club members will meet Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the club rooms, Division street, instead of at the home of Mrs. A. J. Capezio of Agnew street. Co-hostesses will be: Mrs. Louis Gaspare, Mrs. Joseph Panella, Mrs. Tony Cooper and Mrs. Andrew Marape.

ANN SCARAZZO WEDS JOSEPH L. AUDINO

Syzygium palms embanking the St. Vitus church altar, and lighted white tapers and bouquets of white gladioli flanking the church aisle, provided the beautiful background setting for the Saturday morning wedding, which united in marriage, Miss Ann Scarazzo and Joseph Louis Audino, both of this city.

Miss Scarazzo is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfonso Scarazzo of 214 Hazeltown avenue, and Mr. Audino is the son of Mrs. Rita Vesco, 17 1/2 North street, and Felix Audino, of 419 Epworth street.

The nuptial mass was solemnized at 10 a.m., with Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMita officiating. He used the double ring service. During the mass, organ selections were offered by Mrs. Frances Vesco, and "Ave Maria" was softly sung by little Jimmy Vesco.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Alfonso Scarazzo. She was charmingly attired in a white gown of imported ruffled Chantilly lace and nylon organza over Belding's satin. The gown was fashioned with a high neckline with nylon net yoke edged with medallions of Venise lace, seed pearls and rhinestones. The long tapering sleeves of lace with medallions at each wrist, and fitted basque bodice were added complements. Its double organza bouffant hooped skirt in redingote style with lace overskirt, fell into a long Cathedral train. The front skirt panel and the corners of the train were daintily scattered with medallions. Completing the bridal gown, the Claire original, was the bride's veil imported from Belgium, edged with exquisite Belgian embroidery, that fell from a tiara of imported orange blossoms. Wearing the traditional "something old, borrowed, blue and carrying an old coin, the bride also carried a mother of pearl prayerbook, marked with fleur d'Amore and stephanotis sprays.

Miss Ada Marcotuli as her cousin's maid of honor, wore a ballerina length gown of poudre blue with matching duster. She carried a bouquet of American beauty roses and white baby mums.

Bridesmaids were Dorothy Endrizz, of Washington, D.C., Marie Angelotti, of Montclair, N. J., Verna Scarazzo, Rita Prioletti, Ida Vesco and Jenny Fusco, the latter of Ellwood City. They wore ballerina gowns in pastel shades of mauve and rose with contrasting dusters to match. Their bouquets were of American beauty roses and white baby mums.

Robert Clark served the bridegroom as best man. Ushers included, Alfonso Marcotuli, George Scarazzo, Helen Marcotuli, Richard John Audino, Carl Giabella, Jr., and Mustin McCuddin, the latter of Ann Arbor, Mich.

Following the congratulatory period at the church, a wedding breakfast was served to guests and relatives numbering 100 at the Scarazzo residence on Hazeltown avenue.

The informal dinner-reception at 6 o'clock in the evening at the Cathedral was held for 500 guests. Tables were decorated in the nuptial theme, and during the course of the evening the newlyweds headed the reception line.

Mr. and Mrs. Audino departed later on a wedding trip to Canada and the New England states. Upon their return they will reside at 306 Lincoln avenue.

Mrs. Audino is a graduate of the New Castle high school, and was graduated from Seton Hill college, Greensburg, Pa. For the past two years she has been the music instructor at Bessemer high school.

Mr. Audino, a former veteran, attended Westminster college and was later graduated from John Carroll university, Cleveland, O. He is at present affiliated with the West Disinfecting company.

MEN WITH HERNIA

Who Are Tired of Wearing a Truss

We want men who are dissatisfied with trusses—men who have tried "every truss on the market" and not found one that works.

We want hard working men whose jobs require lifting and straining—who don't want to spend time in a hospital—who want to regain their former strength and health.

We want men who have nursed a hernia for 10, 20, 30 years or more—men with hernias as small as a walnut, or large as a grapefruit, if it is still reducible.

We want YOU to come to our office for a consultation—and we PROMISE that we will relieve you of the burden of your hernia: (1) that you need never buy another truss; (2) that your hernia will never again give you trouble; and (3) that many of you will see your hernia disappear completely. We will give you our written guarantee.

Let the timid wait until they find there is no other way! YOU can find out about it today without obligation. Come early. Come when you can. NOW is the time!

Great Game Of Politics

By FRANK R. KENT

White House Angle

WASHINGTON, JULY 16 — One effect here of the Korean negotiations, the final outcome of which, despite stoppage of actual fighting, will not be known for weeks to come (and may not be good at all) is a violent outburst of partisan politics. Both Republicans and Democrats have contributed to this. It appears definitely to end the last slender hope of revival of anything like a bipartisan foreign policy.

Until and unless a general war forces unity there will be no unity in either defense effort or the conduct of foreign affairs. On the contrary, there now seems practical certainty that foreign policy will be the main issue in the presidential campaign next year. The full propaganda power of the Administration is already employed. Its foreign policy and power of the one side will be hotly eulogized by one side and savagely attacked by the other. There now seems no way to avoid this, and those who appreciate that the state of the world for a long time to come will call for the utmost strength we can develop at home and abroad are deeply distressed at the prospect.

It is, in fact, a bad situation. Without in the least condoning the extreme partisanship of the Republicans, it is unquestionably true that chief blame attaches to the Democratic Administration. Look at the facts. Under existing conditions bipartisanship in foreign affairs is, of course, essential if our policies are to be truly effective. Mr. Truman and Secretary of State Acheson have done a great deal of beating about the bush in their desire for unity. Their favored columnists are commentators loudly and constantly pay high tribute to the late Senator Vandenberg and lament that there are in the Senate no other Republicans of his breadth and character, which may be true. However, these professions and protestations clearly make it incumbent for the Administration to set an example.

-O-

If bipartisanship is to be achieved the initiative must come from the party in power. If its leaders initiate policies they also must take the first steps toward the abandonment of politics. Few will dispute that, but even fewer will contend that despite the employment of Mr. Dulles and ex-Senator Cooper, any real step in that direction has been taken. Certainly the stuff emanating from Administration sources since the Korean truce was seriously suspected of contradicting such idea. Almost from the day that Mr. Malik's speech, the Democratic politicians by whom Mr. Truman is surrounded and whom he sees more frequently than anyone else—notably Chairman of the Committee William M. Boyle—have concentrated upon the political benefit that might accrue to him and them. A stream of propaganda is pouring forth from the various party publicity agencies to the general effect that the proposed truce is proof of the "brilliant success" of the Truman policies in Korea; that the end of the fighting there means his triumphant renomination and re-election; that he now will be forced by popular demand to run again, etc., etc. The New Deal-Fair Deal publicists sing the same song.

Naturally, the Republican reaction is to combat all this. The propagandists point out that another brilliant success, such as that in Korea, will sink them. They say that the truce leaves us exactly where we started—on the Thirty-eighth Parallel; that there have been 80,000 American casualties in Korea in one year; that the cost of money and materials has been stupendous and even with the fighting ended, an end of the terrific drain on our economy is just not in sight, etc., etc. This Democratic-Republican flood of paragon propaganda supplemented the general Eisenhower flood, and they urge the peace in Korea increases the chances of his Republican nomination and might bring about endorsement by the Democratic Convention.

The reasoning here is not easy to follow but the point is that in Washington Democrats, Republicans and the professional liberals alike have rushed to interpret developments in Korea in terms of partisan politics apparently concerned only secondarily with the effect upon the world crisis. Here was an opportunity for the Administration to refrain from claiming credit for a "brilliant success" to ignore the political advantages for 1952 and sound a genuinely bipartisan note. But that opportunity has been lost in the clamor of its politicians and publicists about the political benefits to Mr. Truman. However, when one considers the President's recent appointments to the Federal bench and the contemptuous way he has swept aside the recommendations of the Senate, it is hardly surprising that his aides should view the Korean situation from the political angle. That is the recognized White House angle.

Demands Legislation To Keep Dangerous Reds Behind Bars

SEAFORD, Del., July 16—(INS)—Walter E. Alessandrini, national chairman of the American Legion's un-American activities committee, has demanded federal legislation to "make certain all dangerous Communist conspirators remain behind bars when convicted."

Alessandrini, of Philadelphia and former Pennsylvania Legion commander, told the 33rd annual convention of the Delaware legion that "if a constitutional method for denying bail to those awaiting trial cannot be found, the very least that is demanded under the circumstances is to make high bail mandatory."

He declared that the "refusal of the officials of the left wing civil rights congress to disclose the identities of those who posted the bail is as outrageous as the use of bail for convicted Communists."

"The books and records of the civil rights congress," Alessandrini said, "should be immediately subpoenaed to determine the identity of the fellow Communist sympathizers who put up the $260,000 bail for the top 11 convicted criminals."

The legion official said "these criminal conspirators have been working at the destruction and overthrow of the American government for three years while under bail and now, because of their bail-jumping tactics, may have escaped entirely."

Alessandrini charged the convicted Communists with "democracy"—meaning an "intent to murder democracy."

Bart Richards of the New Castle News will be the speaker at the Tuesday evening dinner meeting of the Wolves Club. Dinner will be at 6:30 o'clock. The meeting will be held at The Castleton.

Blair Strip Steel Employees Picnic

With "everything on the house" large number of employees of the Blair Strip Steel company took their families out to Cascade Park, Saturday July 14 for the annual company picnic.

Humane Society To Meet Wednesday

Lawrence County Humane Society will hold its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, July 18, at 8 o'clock, in the Y. M. C. A. Plans will be completed for a dance to be held for the benefit of the shelter fund.

Vandals Do Damage At West Side School

Vandals entered the West Side school over the weekend and did considerable damage, it is announced by Robert Stewart, special school police officer.

The tearing up of the school paper towel and other paper supplies and scattering them throughout the building caused the most damage, it is reported.

It is thought that the vandals entered through a window from a fire escape, though no windows were broken.

City and school police are working on the case and announce that the punishment in this case and in future cases of the sort will be severe.

Members of the New Castle Lions club will pay a visit to the plant of the United Engineering and Foundry company, as their program for Tuesday noon. Members will meet at The Castleton at 12 noon, and will go from there to the plant, where they will have lunch, following which they will be conducted through the plant on an inspection trip.

FOR A NOVEMBER VICTORY, NOMINATE PRITCHARD JULY 24

The day is gone in New Castle when a Republican nomination is a guarantee of victory in November.

If Republicans expect to elect a Republican Mayor this year they will have to nominate a REAL Republican July 24, a man qualified to do the job, a man who can head a successful ticket in the fall.

Edward D. Pritchard has been a Republican in fair weather and foul. He has never deserted the ticket, never accepted a nomination from another party, has always supported the choice of his party at the primaries.

For a winner in November, nominate Pritchard July 24.

Fourth name on the ballot. Make it first in the result.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

Gloomy Foreboding

Young Mrs. Reston is puzzled. "Why is it," she asks, "that all the women in the neighborhood are always warning that I'm going to have a hard time with my child in his next stage? Mrs. Kimbrough a few months ago said, 'Just wait until your Jimmy is supposed to have solid foods! Then you'll have trouble! And now, my next-door neighbor gloomily tells me how difficult it will be when Jimmy starts crawling and toddling around.

"I don't see what's so terrible about these changes. Surely, one has to act differently, but so what?"

It's hard to know just how people do indulge in these gloomy forebodings. Perhaps, they feel that they are already initiated, "in the know" so to speak, and like to impress others with what they have "been through." Young school children are likely to tell those who haven't yet gone to school how bad it will be. On the adult level, Mrs. Reston's neighbors may be doing the same sort of thing.

At any rate, if we understand what some of the changes in children will be and are emotionally prepared for them, there's no reason to worry. We'll be able to take them in our stride.

oysters and asparagus. She said she was not hungry.

Isn't it awful? With thousands and thousands of English men, women and children getting just enough food to keep body and soul together, poor Barbara with caviar, oysters and asparagus offered to her is not hungry.

The other item concerns a certain Mickey Devine of Greenwich, Conn., of whom, frankly, I had never heard.

Miss Devine, 39, who received a million dollars settlement when she divorced her first husband, auto magnate Horace E. Dodge, Jr., has closed her $150,000 15-room 5-bath mansion and dismissed her five servants—all for the love of a fireman, whom she just married. She will live with him in a modest three-room apartment.

"I'm through with the playgirl life and plunging necklines," she told the reporter and showed him the socks she was knitting for her fireman-groom.

Do you wonder my heart is sad today?

Fails To Stop After Accident

Charles Rowland, 715 Harbor street, told police Sunday that at 12:15 a.m. that date, a Ford struck his car, in the rear of 425 East Long avenue. He pursued the car as far as East Brook but lost it there, he informed police.

Tallulah Bankhead's new triumph as a radio M. C. inspired a jealous rival to remark, "Tallu's gotten so high-hat by this time she pronounces the second 'L' in 'Lincoln.'" A guest at La Bankhead's Connecticut retreat was astonished when a servant brought him a glass of straight gin the moment he awoke. "Better drink it, darling," called Tallu from the next room. "I warn you there won't be another round served before breakfast."

Dr. Joe Musselman's most baffling case developed when a stranger burst into his office and beseeched, "Cure me, Doctor! I keep blowing smoke rings all day long." "An admirable accomplishment some smokers spend months acquiring," chided the doctor. "Why does it perturb you so?" The patient explained, "But doctor, I don't smoke."

News Briefs From City Hall

NEWS BRIEFS from City Hall—When council met Monday as a committee of the whole which considers various items of business, they acted favorably on matters as follows: Granted permission to Oliver G. and Mrs. Hoch to build a sanitary sewer in West Winter avenue, at their own expense, which will become a city sewer, when completed. They also adopted an ordinance changing the grade and removing obstructions, to conform with state highway bureau plans in Montgomery avenue between the P. R. R. crossing and the city line where resurfacing is to occur.

Council and Fire Chief Herman Steinbrink plan to view a section in the 800 block of Moravia street to which the Castle Farm Equipment company plans to move a cooler system. It is now located at 811 Moravia street. It is proposed to install it at 810 Moravia street.

Some equipment for the bathing pool at Cascade Park has arrived in the city. The pool will be revamped by city employees operating under the supervision of the Hydrozone company of New York City which has the contract to install a filtering system.

Petition was presented by property-owners residing in East Wash avenue between Wayne avenue and Cedar street in which it was requested the section be improved by the installation of a hard material.

Council adopted an ordinance Monday under terms of which the city will vacate McCleary avenue from a point 77 feet east from the right of way of the E. & A. division of the P. R. R. to the eastern end of the avenue, and Sennet street, for its whole length. The assessment for all damages growing out of the vacating will be paid by the Shenango Pottery company, according to the ordinance.

Parking receipts during the month of June amounted to $5,071, while in May the receipts totaled $4,084.50. No doubt, the increase in the collection was due to the fact that many motorists who ordinarily ride to and from work on buses, drove their own cars and inserted money in the meters.

Building permits were issued to J. C. Gillfillan to build a $10,000 home at 1702 Audley avenue and one at 1714 Audley avenue at a cost of $9,000. John T. Pajak got a permit to build a $9,000 home at 1003 Ryan avenue and E. H. Day was given a sanction to repair a building at 801 Sampson street, at a cost of $10,000.

Four-Day Week Schedule For Radiator Plant

Due to accumulated inventory and the normal summer slack in boiler sales, the National Radiator company will operate on a four day week beginning Friday.

"This will be a temporary recession," said E. David Graham, plant manager. "Inside of four or five weeks we expect to be back at normal production."

Reds See Cold War More Important Than Actual War

TOKYO, July 16.—(INS)—U. S. State Department Consultant William D. Pawley today said officials of "all Asiatic countries" believe Russia looks on its propaganda "cold war" as more important now than an actual fighting war.

The former ambassador to Peru and Brazil, now a special consultant to Secretary of State Acheson, said in Tokyo that government officials "from India to Japan, and in all Asiatic countries," told him the Reds' propaganda warfare is, to them, their most important weapon.

He added: "And these officials sincerely hope we will take every precaution to avoid loss of any psychological benefits now that we have won a magnificent military victory."

Pawley arrived in Japan yesterday on a world-wide "reorientation" tour. He visited Europe, served as a grain consultant in India and toured Burma, Thailand, Hong Kong and Formosa before flying to Japan.

The diplomat said he hopes to visit "his old friend," Gen. Matthey B. Ridgway, now in Korea directing operations of the U. N. truce team in Kaesong. The two men worked together when the allied supreme commander was attached to the United Nations.

Formal Charges Of Manslaughter Against Doctor

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., July 16.—(INS)—Natty Dr. Donald F. Gibson submitted today on manslaughter charges growing out of the mysterious death a year ago of an elderly spinster patient who willed him her entire estate of between $65,000 and $100,000.

The fashionable, 49-year-old Danbury physician, who was promptly released under $5,000 bond, again insisted he is innocent of any wrong-doing in the death of the spinster, Miss Elizabeth May Ayres, 74, who died on July 26, 1950.

"I am sure," he stated through his attorney, "that when a jury has the complete facts of Miss Ayres' death I shall be completely exonerated."

Dr. Gibson's statement deplored what he called the widespread publicity given the case, stating that as a result "it is not surprising that great prejudice has been brought against me."

A special grand jury indicted the physician last Friday, charging him with "the grossly negligent administration of drugs" to Miss Ayres. He was paroled for the week end in custody of his lawyer, David Goldstein. They appeared at the Fairfield County Courthouse this morning for the formal arrest proceeding.

Would Bar Civil Rights Congress Bail For Indicted Reds

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(INS)—Legislation was introduced in the House today to bar the Civil Rights Congress from furnishing bail for indicted Communist leaders.

It is sponsored by Rep. Walter (D) Pa., a member of the House un-American activities committee. The legislation, while directed at the Civil Rights Congress, would bar all organizations listed as subversive by the attorney general's office from posting bail in any federal cases.

In an accompanying statement, Walter declared: "The Civil Rights Congress today is obstructing justice, in my opinion, by refusing to give the court information which might aid in the capture of the four persons convicted of seeking to overthrow our government by force and who are refugees from justice. This is an outrageous situation and I don't believe that the founding fathers of our country intended the constitution and the federal laws to defeat justice in this fashion."

Engine Failure Blamed For Crash

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(INS)—The Civil Aeronautics Board said today that the crash of a non-scheduled airliner in the Atlantic Ocean last year which killed 28 persons was due to engine failure from "causes unknown."

The airliner enroute from Puerto Rico to North Carolina was ditched at sea 300 miles east of Melbourne, Fla., on June 5, 1950. All of the dead were Puerto Ricans. The plane carried 62 passengers and three crew members.

Incinerators are one of the worst types of offenders in air purification programs, and are often fire hazards as well as sources of disagreeable odors.

Committee Approves Move To End State Of War With Germany

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(INS)—The House foreign affairs committee today approved a resolution to end the state of war between the United States and Germany. Chairman Richards (D) S. C., said he will seek House action "as expeditiously as possible."

Richards declined to reveal the committee vote on the resolution. But he indicated that while no one voted against it, some members indicated they held reservations about the resolution and voted "present."

SURPLUS USE
CARBONDALE, Ill.—(INS)—Southern Illinois university educators are making good use today of government items obtained under the surplus property program. Take one lot of surplus tents and they become housing for zoology field trips. Parachute silk becomes drapes for windows and backgrounds for photography. A seven-ton "surplus" crane is used for moving heavy equipment around the university grounds. Deep freeze units are used for refrigeration classes, and a complete army field kitchen is used to prepare food for outdoor education classes.

Threat To Pakistan Seen In Concentration Of Indian Troops

KARACHI, Pakistan, July 16.—Prime Minister Liaquat Ali Khan asserted today that Indian troop concentrations along Pakistan's borders are a "great threat" to Pakistan and "international peace" and moved to advise the United Nations.

The prime minister said that "heavy concentrations of Indian forces are occurring in East Punjab, Jammu and Kashmir."

He declared: "The bulk of the Indian army now is concentrated against Pakistan's border. It constitutes a great threat to the security of Pakistan and international peace."

The prime minister said he has asked Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru to remove the threat, and has instructed Pakistan's representative at the UN to inform the security council.

Auto Driver Is Killed In Crash

PITTSBURGH, July 16.—(INS)—The victim of an automobile race hovered near death in a Pittsburgh hospital today, while police sought the driver of the other car which kept going when the automobile driven by 20-year-old Nicholas Kishur crashed and killed Kishur.

Allegheny hospital authorities said Joseph Meyers, 30, Pittsburgh, who was riding with Kishur, was in serious condition with head injuries.

Police said Kishur's auto smashed into a utility pole along Mt. Troy road with terrific force, similar to an explosion, and hurled both occupants clear last night. Meyers was found under the wreckage. Kishur's body was found near the curb.

Kishur, a North Hills district resident, recently was discharged from the army.

No Orders Here On Draft Raise

County Board Sends Eleven Men To Camp

No orders have been received on what the future status of prospective draftees here will be, it was stated by draft board officials today. The number of men to be called in August and September throughout the nation has been raised to 35,000 men for August and 34,000 for September.

Pennsylvania selective service headquarters has stated that the August call has been raised from 354 to 1,359 men. Word is being awaited on this order at local draft board headquarters, announcing the number of men to be called locally.

Those Who Left
Local Board 86, for the area outside New Castle, sent eleven men to Pittsburgh for induction last week. Local Board 87 for the city of New Castle had orders for only one man, who was rejected for service.

Those who left on the call received by County Board 86, were: Wilbur A. Anderson, Edward D. Koser, William G. Barber, Jr., John Thomas Frickanish, William Edward Mariotti, Frank A. Procapio, William D. Eady, Emmett F. Santillo, William B. Lutton, Eugene E. Bilo, Samuel P. Ames.

Reports $15,000 Stamp Collection Stolen From Home

BEAVER, Pa., July 16. — Commemorative stamps, valued at $15,000, stolen from the home of Edward A. Livingstone, vice president of the Babcock & Wilcox Tube Co., are the object of a search by local and district police. The collection was stolen from the Livingstone home some time last week while the family vacationed in New Jersey.

According to the owner, the collection was made up of 4,000 Presidential series stamps which Mr. Livingstone had been collecting over a period of 15 years. The stamp group missing was rated tens of its kind.

The valley executive stated that the job was done evidently by someone who knew his stamps and also had a knowledge of his premises. Three locks were broken to get at the stamps which were in the den.

If it can be proven the stamps were transported over state lines, the F.B.I. will step into the case in order to bring a quick solution to the unusual theft.

Mullentown School Reunion Is Held

Twenty-second Mullentown school (West Side) reunion was held recently in the grove of Cascade Park, with a large crowd of former schoolmates gathering for another glorious time.

Dinner was served in the grove at 6:30 p.m. The committee in charge included: Mrs. Ruby Rote, Mrs. Nell Fulkerson and Mrs. Pearl Hannon.

The invocation was offered by the oldest member present, Thomas Pattison, (83 years of age).

Following dinner, a business meeting was held, with president, Mrs. Ida M. Suber presiding. The old school favorite, "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here," opened the program.

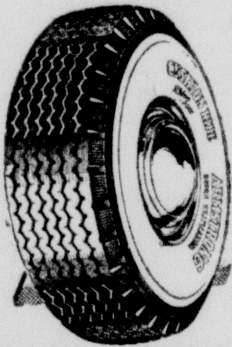

Remarks were given by Mr. Pattison, Chester Thompson and A. Louis Hannon.

Mrs. Suber offered a tribute to the memory of Mae Hammond who passed away last week. It was regretted that vice president, Claude Patton, Young street, was unable to attend due to an illness.

Election of officers for the new year took place: president, Mrs. Ruby Rote; vice president, Mrs. Nell Fulkerson; secretary, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Betka; treasurer, Mrs. Bessie Lemley.

Plans were made for a party in October, the date and committees to be announced.

Robert Stevenson Exchange Teacher In United Kingdom

Robert (Ashley) Stevenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin S. Stevenson, R.D. 6, has been selected by the committee on interchange of teachers, as an American exchange teacher in the United Kingdom.

He will teach in the Junior-Secondary school, Calder, near Edinburgh, Scotland, during the coming school year. The interchange of teachers was authorized under Public Law No. 584, 79th Congress known as the Fulbright Act and the sixth group of American guest teachers will go abroad this year.

Mr. Stevenson was a teacher in the Slippery Rock township schools for ten years. During the past four years he has been affiliated with the North Hills Joint school system, Pittsburgh, Pa. His position there will be filled by Gordon T. Stubbs, an exchange teacher from Scotland.

The exchange teachers will be honored at a reception in the English Speaking Union building in New York City on July 25, prior to embarking for Southampton, England on the S. S. Washington.

After an official welcome in London they will travel to their respective assignments. Mr. Stevenson will be at his home on the Frew Mill road until July 24.

Rainbow Plans State Meeting

Ninth Grand Assembly To Be Held Shortly

Mrs. Agnes C. Allen, Supreme Deputy of this city, and Miss Doris Fegely, of Philadelphia, Grand Worthy Advisor, will preside at the ninth Pennsylvania Grand Assembly, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, which will be held in the Bellevue Stratford hotel in Philadelphia, August 9-11.

The formal opening of the Grand assembly will take place on Thursday afternoon, August 9, at 2 o'clock, followed by the annual memorial service. Initiation of new candidates and the majority degree will be conferred that evening.

Many From Here Going

Grand officers election will take place on Friday, August 10, at the morning session, with installation of officers in the evening, followed by the Grand Cross of Color.

New Castle Assembly will be represented by a large group of officers and members, and the drill team, which took second honors at Pittsburgh last year, will compete again this year, under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. H. Meade Thompson.

It is planned to leave here by bus, sometime Wednesday, August 8, although final plans have not been completed.

Those who have special appointments from the New Castle Assembly include: Jackie Funkhouser, Grand Love and Supreme Aide for the Grand Cross of Color; Janet Frank, Grand Representative to the State of New York; and Flower Girl for the Grand Cross of Color; Eleanor Reynolds, Grand Page; and Mary Lou Streeter, Grand Choir member.

Mrs. Kathryn Hornung, of this city is Publicity Director; J. H. Earl McKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. H. Meade Thompson, finance and auditing committee; Mrs. Mildred Wygant, member of the Grand Executive Committee, who will serve as Mother Advisor for the opening session of the Grand Assembly.

Girls who will attend, in addition to those named above, are: Nancy Lewis, Joan Book, Nancy Lummey, Jeanne Cooper, Janet Flick, Kay Sherrer, Lynne Caplan, Kathy Oswald, Saralee Gerson, Charlene Prentice, Hazel Ann Maxwell, Marilyn Joseph, Sandra Wettich, Peggy Matthews, Marsha Hicks, Mary Lou Thomas, Nancy Logan, Janet Thompson, Margery Hanna, Barbara Capitola, Donna Ray, Laverne Jackson, Carol Lynn Haley, Lois Bratsche, Barbara White and Lottie Shaffer. Chaperons from the Advisory Board will include: Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Earl McKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. H. Meade Thompson, Mrs. M. R. Hornung and Mrs. Samuel M. Frank.

General Assembly Reconvenes Today In Longest Session

HARRISBURG, July 16.—(INS)

The general assembly reconvenes today for another short work week with the attention of lawmakers split between the forthcoming primary election and legislative matters.

The 1951 session has plodded along until it now is the longest meeting in 109 years.

Sentiment among leaders of the house and senate indicated a break in the tax tangle, which has slowed the 1951 session to a walk, will come after the July 24 primary.

There is nothing to show, however, whether the break will lead to new taxation or to a reasonably quick adjournment without any new levy, thus forcing Gov. John S. Fine to tailor government operations to revenues.

The governor shows no willingness to weaken his demand for about 119 million dollars to complete the $1,220,000,000 budget he recommended last March for the 1951-53 biennium which opened June 1.

Union Township Firemen made a run at noon Sunday to Parkersburg, where a faulty motor set fire to a gasoline pump at the gasoline station of George Primavera of R. D. 1, Edenburg. Station attendants had the fire in hand before the arrival of fire-

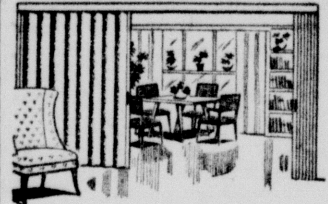

Price Ceilings For Communities Now Under Consideration

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(INS)—Price stabilizers said today the government may impose individual dollars and cents price ceilings on each American community next fall to hold the line on retail food prices.

The office of price stabilization announced that the agency is seriously considering the method of community pricing used extensively during the last war.

W.S.C.S. Group Planning Outing

Discussion Held At Metz Residence

Plans for a picnic supper on Friday, August 10, were made by the Simpson Methodist church Women's Society of Christian Service, when they met at the home of Mrs. W. F. Metz at 1003 North Cedar street.

The monthly session of the group attracted a good attendance, with the meeting called to order by vice president Mrs. Leroy Miller. The program and study period was conducted by Mrs. Wallace Shaffer.

"The Pearl of the Orient—The Philippines" was the topic for discussion. Aboard participating in the discussion period were Mrs. G. E. Shaffer, Mrs. Merle Mitchell, Mrs. Wallace Shaffer, Mrs. Alys McCormick and Mrs. Arthur Llewellyn.

Mrs. McCormick, president of the organization, conducted the business session when the group completed plans for the picnic supper which will take place at the home of Rev. and Mrs. G. E. Shaffer on August 10.

Following the regular meeting, the group then joined to give a miscellaneous surprise shower for Mrs. Leroy Miller, nee Shirley Shaffer, a bride of last month. The honoree received many lovely gifts for use in her new home on East Washington street.

Mrs. Metz was assisted by Mrs. Robert Haigler in serving a delicious lunch to the group.

Dr. Louis Worley Visiting Relatives

Dr. Louis Worley, pastor of the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church is visiting today and Tuesday in Mercer and Greenville with relatives. Dr. Worley is a native of this section of the country, having been born in Mercer county.

No services are scheduled in the Presbyterian church for this week until Sunday.

Krauses Leave For Vacation Period

Rev. and Mrs. Howard L. Krause of the Madison Avenue Christian church left today for their annual two weeks vacation period.

The couple will motor to Washington, D. C., where they will be visiting a few days with relatives of Mrs. Krause. Following this, they plan to drive to Fredericksburg, Va., where they will spend the remainder of the time with other relatives.

During Rev. Krause's absence from the church, the elders of the Madison church will be in charge of the service. Members of the church should direct their calls to one of the elders if their services are needed.

School Reunion Plans Under Way

Plans are being formulated for the 22nd annual Mahoningtown school reunion, which will be an event of Wednesday, August 1, at 2 p. m.

The group will first assemble at the Mahoning school house for a business session and then at 6:30 p. m. they will retire to the Methodist church dining room where the homecoming dinner event will be held.

Dinner reservations are being received by Mrs. Helen Adams of 209 Liberty street, who must have the reservations no later than Friday, July 27.

The event generally draws a good crowd and this year's reunion should be no exception. Many from out of town are planning to be present for the gathering.

W.A.G. Club Will Breakfast At Park

Members of the seventh ward W. A. G. club will assemble Thursday at 9:30 a. m. at Cascade park for a breakfast meeting. The group will go direct to the park where they will meet the other members.

St. Margaret's Group Will Meet

St. Margaret's Sewing club will have its regular weekly session this evening at 7 o'clock in the club rooms. Various items of importance will be discussed by the members as plans for the future are made.

Seventh Ward Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Masters and son Tommy of 206 South Wayne street and Tony and Nickie Perrotta of 120 South Wayne street, visited Cleveland Saturday.

Jean Ann DeMare of Wampum is visiting her cousin, Cecelia Perrotta of 120 South Wayne street, for a short while.

WITH NEW CASTLE AFRO-AMERICANS

Record 97 Now At YMCA Camp

Turnout Is Largest In 30-Year History

A record attendance of 97 marked the opening of the second week of YMCA camp Fred L. Rentz.

Never in the 30 year history of the camp has such a registration turned out for a week's camping period. The second week was officially opened Sunday afternoon with vesper services.

Group activities will be based on a cabin participation plan and will include softball, swimming, hiking, volleyball and other sports.

The names of those boys now in camp will be announced later.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Helen Forney and family and Mrs. Hilda Butz and family are home after a two-weeks vacation at Conneaut, O.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Sterling and Mr. and Mrs. Irvine A. Balph, of Wallace avenue, have returned home from a week's visit to New York City and Edgewater, N. J. While in the latter city, they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Roberts and Mrs. Loughrey.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Koslow, and daughter, of East Long avenue, spent the weekend in Cleveland, O., where they attended the wedding of a cousin. They also visited with their daughter and sister, Miss Bernice Koslow, a student nurse at Mt. Sinai hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Doyle and daughter, Miss Carol Doyle, of 1105 Highland avenue, have returned from visiting Mrs. Doyle's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur T. Mayberry, of St. Petersburg Beach, Fla. Mr. Mayberry, a former local resident, who was confined to the Veterans hospital, Bay Pines, Fla., is showing improvement.

CHILD FALLS ON NAIL

Rev. W. A. McGill Is Speaker At Highland U.P.

Rev. Willis A. McGill spoke at five meetings of Highland-United Presbyterian Bible school and church Sunday morning, telling of his work in Cairo, Egypt, where he and Mrs. McGill are representing the local congregation as missionaries.

Rev. McGill, who is on furlough for one year in this country after having been in the foreign mission field for seven years of continuous service, spoke of many interesting phases of his work. His work has been especially effective among the young people of Egypt. The foreign mission board has purchased new property in Cairo which has been turned over to young people's activities exclusively. Rev. McGill who holds a special service on Thursday nights at his station has done excellent work in this branch of the foreign missionary program.

The McGills and their three sons soon will leave this part of the country for a western tour, visiting his mother and making other visits on their way to the west coast.

Highland congregation expects to entertain them in the fall on their return trip east. Rev. and Mrs. McGill have been representing Highland church in the foreign mission field for 14 years. They are looking forward to returning to Egypt after their furlough is completed.

Ellwood Man Dies In Korea

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilson Bonzo, of 620 Lawrence avenue, Ellwood City, stating that their son, Pfc. John R. Bonzo, was killed in action with the enemy, on February 25, of this year.

He had been wounded previously last September and had returned to duty, only to meet death while fighting in the vicinity of Taepyeong Gyo, the message stated.

He enlisted on October 2, 1948, on his 17th birthday, and was assigned to duty overseas on July 23, 1950, where he served in the 23rd Infantry, of the Second Division. Besides his parents, he is survived by a sister, Mrs. Shirley Magee. He had been employed at Runyan's service station and the Ellwood City Ledger, prior to entering service.

Completes Course In Power Maintenance At Camp Gordon, Ga.

CAMP GORDON, Ga. — Pfc. David L. Bowen, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Bowen, 321 Fairmont Ave., New Castle, was graduated recently from a course in power maintenance in The Southeastern Signal School of the Signal Corps Training Center.

A native of New Castle, Pfc. Bowen attended New Castle high school and before entering the service was an apprentice electrician of the B. & O. Railroad.

The Signal Corps Training Center where he is stationed was established in 1948 to expedite the Signal Corps' part of the Army's expansion program.

SPORTSMEN TO MEET

Lawrence County Sportsman's Association will hold a regular monthly meeting at 8 o'clock Tuesday night at their Harbor clubhouse.

Resume Hearing On Request To Abandon Trains

Testimony was resumed today in the Lawrence county court house in the petition of the Pennsylvania railroad to abandon passenger trains 404 and 405 between Sharon and Beaver Falls.

Public Utility Examiner James K. Thomas is conducting the hearing. The railroad is represented by Attorney Robert R. Artz. For the communities served by these trains City Solicitor Robert McK. White and Attorney Nathan Routman are in the case and Attorney W. D. Smith for the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

The company claims it has lost money in the operation of the trains between Sharon and Beaver Falls. By having the trains run from Beaver Falls to Pittsburgh only, it believes it will be able to reduce its losses.

The complainants argue that the abandonment of the trains would handicap residents in Mercer and Lawrence counties.

Body Of Local Soldier Being Returned Home

Among the bodies of 451 American, who lost their lives as a result of the fighting in Korea, which are being returned to the United States for home burial, is that of Pvt. John L. Bartberger, son of Joseph L. Bartberger, of West Washington street extension.

The ship bringing home their bodies, the Furman Victory, is scheduled to arrive at San Francisco today.

An escort will accompany the body here for final burial at a later date.

Ask Continuance Of 422 By-Pass To Shenango Street

Streets committee of the GNCA and the municipal traffic committee forwarded a communication to city council Monday in which they requested that in order to route vehicular traffic from the downtown area and business district that the by-pass be continued west to Bridge street, which will provide a traffic outlet through Beaver and Shenango streets.

At present the by-pass will run to South Jefferson street, and in order to carry out the desire of the committees it would be necessary for the city to open a street where the newly constructed bypass comes into South Jefferson street, westward.

Upon suggestion of Mayor John F. Haven the request was referred to committee for consideration.

Mrs. Murray Garrison In Critical Condition

NEW YORK, July 16—(INS)—Mrs. Murray Garrison, 68-year-old wife of munitions millionaire Murray Garrison, who only last week finished serving time for a war-bribe scandal, was in critical condition today in Flower-Fifth Avenue Hospital from an overdose of sleeping pills.

Mrs. Garrison took the pills at her Fifth Avenue home Saturday morning, police said, but the report on the case was not made until yesterday.

Detectives quoted Garrison as saying he had found his wife on the floor of their apartment and that she had taken too many sleeping pills "by accident."

Murray Garrison, then 54, his brother Henry and former Representative Andrew May, Kentucky Democrat, were sentenced to serve 8 to 24 months in prison on bribery charges in a case involving $53,634 alleged to have been paid by the brothers to May. The brothers started serving their terms in December 1, 1949. May at the time was head of the House Military Affairs Committee.

Dedication Of St. Vitus School Occurs Sunday

pastor, Rev. Fr. Raymond Heintz in making the day a most memorable one.

Rev. Fr. Thomas J. Quigley, M.A., P.H.D., diocesan superintendent of schools, Pittsburgh, was the first speaker on the program to extend his best wishes.

"St. Vitus parishioners," he said, "are to be commended for their great achievement in completing a parochial school. If we are to have pillars of a great democracy—a democracy of which we are so proud—we must first of all teach the children to imitate the virtues of Jesus Christ."

"In a parochial school," Fr. Quigley continued, "the children achieve the sense of God. They develop a sense of living, taught by Jesus Christ, in addition to developing a sense of law and authority. They will realize Christ's mission and then draw others to Christ. With religion as the core of the curriculum, the children are taught the physical, social and moral laws, in an atmosphere which is conducive to Christianity. They are taught principally, the qualities needed to become true pillars of church and country."

Speaks For Parish

Attorney Joseph Leta extended his sincere greetings as a member of St. Vitus church parish, and in behalf of the parishioners of the church.

He lauded Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMita, who through constant effort and sacrifice achieved his greatest dream after 46 years of hard work. "In 1905, St. Vitus church owned nothing," he stated, "but today, they are rich in spiritual benefits and have greatly progressed in the line of education and Catholicism. We rejoice today with Fr. DeMita," he concluded, "this beautiful edifice is ours to expand in the future and ours to have to pursue religious and educational training."

Fr. DeMita Speaks

In the large crowd that attended and witnessed the dedication ceremonies, there were no doubt, many happy persons. There was only one, however, who was almost speechless with joy and with a very full heart.

He was Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMita, pastor of St. Vitus church for 46 years. A pastor who many years ago wished for a parochial school to be near his church—and who after a long weary road, reached his goal and dream.

Saying very little, Fr. DeMita stood before his parishioners on Sunday afternoon humble but proud. He said firmly: "It has been said that knowledge leads men to success; but my dear friends, religion alone can lead men to happiness."

"Many years ago," he reminisced, "I realized that religion is needed in every school if civilization and Christianity is to survive. Early in my priesthood I wanted a parochial school for my church. So in 1908, St. Vitus started a school in the church basement. School continued for 19 years. But as the years progressed, the means of conducting the school were inadequate and I was forced to close the school. It was the most sorrowful day of my life."

Fr. DeMita explained that if God spared me a few years longer, he was determined to have a parochial school. After 22 years of waiting, my dream came true. My dream was realized. Almighty God blessed my efforts," he added, "your school—the school of my dream has come true."

"It is a very happy day for me—this day July 15—a day of dedication of St. Vitus school. And I thank from the bottom of my heart Bishop Dearden for his presence here. I also publicly thank Fr. Quigley and Attorney Leta for their remarks. I thank my assistants who have helped me tremendously and also members of the clergy. But if there are any thanks to be given, my dear parishioners, they are also to be given to you. Today, with pride, I report that the new St. Vitus school is debt-free. And without you, we would not have been able to accomplish this great task. I bless all of you."

Bishop Gives Blessing

"A parochial school is not a luxury," Bishop John Francis Dearden declared on Sunday afternoon, "rather, it is a necessity." This truth has been known to you and your zealous pastor, Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMita. Generations of the young will be reared in this Catholic school. They will be a blessing to their parents. With devotion, zealousness and generosity they will be sent out into the world."

"Through the years," he continued, "Fr. DeMita was completely absorbed with the task of building a parochial school. It is with a joy that he cannot, nor can I, express, that we today take part in this dedication. I commend your pastor for his leadership and devotion, and I pray that God gives him additional blessings. I pay tribute to his assistants for their help and I especially commend the parishioners."

"According to the ritual of the holy mother church," the bishop concluded, "we ask of God favors that he bless those who will teach in this school and those that will be taught. May they both advance in virtue and the love of God. The training these children achieve will be used effectively by them; and may they realize their blessing and accept this training from God—as their choicest treasure." With these words, Bishop John Francis Dearden of the Pittsburgh diocese pronounced his blessings up on the assembly and school as the large assembly knelt in respect.

Open House Held

Following the speakers' program open house was conducted and parents of the school children and friends inspected and visited the school. The beautiful two-story brick building is valued at $250,000. Thus far about $225,000 has been spent. The entire block on South Jefferson street is made up of the school, convent and church. It is completely surrounded by a fence, insuring safety and privacy.

In addition to the sisters who will teach at the school, many sisters from schools in Butler, Pittsburgh and Conneautville, Pa., attended to inspect this new and most modern of school buildings. This fall, 155 children will begin classes at the school. A kindergarten will also be conducted. Rapid completion of the school followed after the first ground was broken on March 19, 1950. The cornerstone was laid in the fall of 1950.

Concert-Dinner Held

Prior to the ceremonies the Red Coat band entertained the crowd with a lively outdoor concert. After the ceremonies a parish dinner was served at five o'clock. Bishop Dearden was the guest of honor, including members of the clergy, visiting priests, team captains of the school campaign and the various heads of the church organizations. Tall white tapers and bouquets of yellow roses and white asters flanked each table.

Priest locally and out of town who attended the dinner in addition to Bishop Dearden and officers of the ceremonies were as follows: Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMita, Rev. Fr. Albert M. Infeso, Fr. Raymond Heintz, Msgr. William Spiegel, St. Paul's, Butler, Pa.; Fr. John Tammario, Cleveland, O.; Fr. Sebastian Ippolito, St. Lucy's, Fr. Vincent Marinaro, Butler, Fr. Wilbur Farina, Pittsburgh; Fr. Francis Pirulli, Monessen, Pa.; Fr. Ettore DeNapoli, Fr. Joseph J. Smith, St. Joseph's, Rev. Fr. C. H. Becker, pastor of St. Joseph's; Fr. Albert Garabito, and Fr. Francis King of St. Mary's; Fr. William Frawley, of Bessemer; Fr. Stanley Zachewski, St. Lucy's; Fr. V. Sladkowski, St. Philip and James; Fr. Francis Boyle, Irwin, Pa.; Fr. Paul Abraham, St. John's; Fr. John O'Neil, St. Monica, Wampum; Fr. Albert Gladis, St. Michael's; Fr. James Kernan, Carnegie, Pa.; Fr. John O'Rourke, New Castle hospital chaplain; Fr. Joseph Perrotto, of Greensburg; Fr. Arthur Garbin, of St. Anthony Village, Oakmont; Fr. Francis Kuczyński, Pittsburgh; Fr. Alex Koziatek, Madonna church; Fr. Edmund Shady, Wampum and Rev. Fr. Paul Lachner, diocesan director of the Holy Name Society, of Pittsburgh.

Pre-Camp Program Planned Friday At Branch YMCA

A pre-camp program, sponsored by the Shenango YMCA, is to be held Friday, July 20, at 8:30 p.m. in the main lobby of the Branch Y.

This year's camping period will extend from August 12 to 19. Campers are looking forward to a week of swimming, hiking, campfire activities, a handicraft program, and on the whole, seven days of clean fun at Fred L. Rentz camp.

All boys interested in camp are asked to bring their parents to the branch Y Friday evening to hear more about the program. Eddie Allen will serve as camp director, and Raymond McHenry as assistant camp director.

Oak Street School Picnic Is Enjoyed

Annual reunion of the Oak Street School was enjoyed at Cascade Park with a large number in attendance. An old-fashioned basket picnic dinner was served promptly at 6:30.

The tables were resplendent with garden flowers and plenty of good food. Much credit is due the Oak Street PTA for their efficient serving of the meal. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Book had charge of the tables, while Mrs. McCullough and Warren Broadbent served on the coffee committee. The sports program was under the direction of Mrs. Mary Emery and Jack Wilson, with old and young participating. There was a tie among the oldsters but little Danny Eve was the youngest person present and won the foot race.

Several candidates for school board were present. Sheriff "Jewey" Coen led the group singing and Mrs. C. Leroy Martin offered a beautiful prayer, in memory of past President W. C. Deament. The festivities came to a close with group singing of "God be with You 'Till We Meet Again."

Ohio Farmers To Visit Weinschenks

Farmers and truck gardeners from Columbiana and Mahoning counties in Ohio will come here Tuesday to inspect the gardens and greenhouses of Weinschenks at Savannah tomorrow.

The group will visit the gardens along the Mahoning river at West Pittsburgh, after which they will come to Savannah to see the gardens, greenhouses and processing plant. Among the interesting sights promised them is a high level sprayer, which can spray corn six feet in height without bending it.

Levie of New York, a member of Gen. Matthew B. Ridgeway's judge advocate staff—said Monday's meeting still "was formal but it was not a formality that would prevent agreement."

Levie said the whole tone of the day's meeting, which was divided into a morning and an afternoon session, lent itself "more toward the formation" of an agreement.

Completion of a list of items the conference must discuss in order to end the bloody Korean war, now in its 56th week, would be a major step forward," the official spokesman declared.

"Until you have an agenda," he pointed out, "you cannot start discussing substantive matters leading to a cease-fire."

Asked how long he thought it would take to agree on the agenda, Levie replied:

"It would be pure guesswork if I said 24 hours or 24 days."

In Good Spirits

The briefing officer, who attended Monday's Kaesong talks, said the two Chinese generals in the five-man Chinese-North Korean delegation were especially in good spirits during the afternoon session.

"The Chinese smiled when they came back into the conference room and they nodded to (Air Force) Maj. Gen. L. C. Craigie (one of the UN delegates). Maybe the communists have learned that we are not the amateurs they had been led by their propagandists to believe we were."

The UN communique Monday night was the first official announcement since the historic conference began exactly a week ago to state directly that definite progress had been made on the important agenda question.

It recalled that "all procedural matters" had been "agreed upon" previously, following resumption Sunday of the cease-fire talks which had been broken off last Thursday.

In Monday's two-part meeting, the communique said, "only agenda items were open for discussion."

Arguments on Agenda

The day's morning session, the official statement added, was opened by Vice Adm. Charles Turner Joy, head of the five-man UN delegation, who presented "further argument in favor of the items on the agenda proposed by the UN command."

The American admiral "spent the best part of the morning" advocating the allied-proposed agenda. Then the chief Red delegate, North Korean Gen. Nam Il, "requested a two-hour recess to enable him to discuss these views with his delegation."

During the afternoon session Nam Il "presented the reaction of his delegation to the views of the UN command," the communique related.

The day's meeting, which opened at 10 Monday morning (eight p.m. Sunday EDT), was adjourned at 1:50 p.m. (11:50 p.m. Sunday EDT), instead of four p.m. (two a.m. EDT), as originally scheduled.

To Reconvene

The communique said the UN and North Korean-Chinese delegations agreed to reconvene at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning (nine p.m. Monday EDT). An official spokesman at the UN truce camp, 15 miles southeast of Kaesong, said the Reds requested that Tuesday's meeting be held an hour later than the usual 10 a.m. starting time.

The spokesman said the Red delegates gave no reason for the request. He added that, presumably, the meeting planned for the next day, Wednesday, would begin at 10 a.m.

International News Service staff correspondent Rafael Steinberg, who went to Kaesong Monday, reported that the "armistice city" was "strictly neutral" and that the communists "warmed up" to UN personnel as the day wore on.

He said an allied highway convoy, in which he rode with other newsmen into Kaesong, spotted only two armed Reds in the morning and that even these soldiers had "disappeared" in the afternoon.

FALLS ON WRIST

Mrs. Janet Mirrow, of 229 E. Leasure avenue, was treated at the Jameson Memorial hospital at 11:45 a.m. Sunday, for a contusion of the right wrist, received when she fell down a flight of stairs at her home.

Public Shows Apathy To Civil Defense Program

By AL SPIVAK

(U. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

HARRISBURG, July 16.—(INS)—A year of war in Korea and an increase in international tension have not lessened public apathy to Pennsylvania's civil defense program.

"There are an awful lot of people we still have to convince that civil defense is not only necessary but is great insurance," says state director Richard Gerstell.

Volunteer participants in the commonwealth's program are keeping up their interest and enthusiasm, according to Gerstell.

"But the general public is inclined to feel that it still has nothing to worry about," he points out.

Add To Complacency

Opening of truce talks in Korea, Gerstell feels, added to public complacency.

"Interest in civil defense varies with news headlines," he explains. "Once again the degree of interest has fallen off although there has been no slackening of the work of organized groups."

Some workers feel they must push even harder now to counteract the public's loss of interest, he reports.

"In practically every community a small percentage of the population is trying to build up a civil defense organization but the majority of the people won't be bothered."

Volunteers still are needed, according to Gerstell.

"We haven't got anywhere near the number we'd need if disaster struck," he says.

Need Personnel

Aircraft observation posts are in greatest need of personnel.

"Auxiliary police, firemen and some other special groups are not having difficulty getting people to take training," he says. "Actually, for those services there are more people willing to be trained than facilities to take care of them."

First aid courses are a prime example of the shortage of teachers, he reports.

"We'll have to train a great many more instructors before we can teach first aid to all the people we'd like to."

First aid training in the commonwealth's schools got off to a good start last semester and will pick up again in the fall.

"The number of people taught first aid in schools during the last year is quite surprising for the short time the program was in effect," he says.

Another civil defense project to be pinpointed in the near future will be blood-typing of Pennsylvanians, reports Gerstell.

"We are going to ask a special committee from the State Medical society to recommend a blood-typing program to the State Civil Defense Council."

Officials have disagreed, he explains, as to whether it would be better to conduct a mass blood-typing program throughout the state or localize it in vital target areas.

Broadway Rocked By Suicide Effort Of Joyce Matthews

NEW YORK, July 16.—(INS)—Blaze Broadway was rocked to its heels today by the attempted suicide of ash-blonded Joyce Matthews in the luxurious penthouse apartment of showman Billy Rose in the Ziegfeld theater.

The 31-year-old showgirl who twice married and was twice divorced from Milton Berle, the television star, slashed both wrists with a razor blade Sunday afternoon. To police summoned by the anguished Rose she explained wryly:

"I just love razor blades."

Later after having been removed to Roosevelt hospital, she declared:

"There is no romantic tie-up between Billy Rose and myself. Nothing romantic at all." But that wasn't what Broadway had been hearing. Hours before the attempted suicide, New York Journal-American Broadway columnist Dorothy Kilgallen wrote a story saying "The big talk these past few days concerned Billy Rose and Eleanor Holm, their reported rift, and Billy's rumored interest in Joyce Matthews."

Shenango Pottery Employees Will Vote On July 26

Thursday, July 26, has been set as a date of a bargaining election for employees of the Shenango Pottery.

Upon petition of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters the National Labor-Relations Board has set the date and a schedule of election hours and polling places will be made later.

Employees eligible to vote will have three choices on their ballot. They can vote for the present bargaining unit, United Steel Workers, CIO; the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters, AFL, or no union at all.

Confessed Slayer Eligible For Parole; But Won't Get Out

CIRCLEVILLE, O., July 16.—(INS)—Robert Dale Segree, confessed firebug and slayer of 172 persons, will be eligible for a parole hearing in September.

However, court officials at Circleville said the hearing for the half-Indian who admitted the 1944 Hartford, Conn., circus fire which killed 168 is "just a formality" and that he will remain behind bars "indefinitely."

Segree, who claimed that an Indian riding a fiery horse drove him to set fires, was sentenced last November 3 in Circleville to a four-to-40-year term—the maximum allowed by law for two cases of arson in Pickaway county. He now is in the Mansfield Reformatory.

His confessions to the circus fire and to four other slayings were made at the Lima State Hospital for Criminal Insane, where officials said there was no reason to doubt them.

Prosecutor Guy Cline said he would be present at any parole hearing in September and would oppose any consideration of a parole for the confessed killer. Common Pleas Judge William Radcliff, who sentenced Segree, also opposes any consideration of a parole.

Secret Service Is Made Permanent Government Agency

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(INS)—The Secret Service was made a permanent government agency today for the first time in its 86 years of existence.

President Truman signed a bill providing for its legality in the presence of Treasury Secretary Snyder and U. E. Baumgartner, chief of the Secret Service.

Until now, the investigative agency has been on a temporary basis.

Mr. Truman remarked he could see no reason why the legislative action had not been taken before.

He added:

"I'm glad that my protection is legal now."

Iron Clad Ban On Aid To Nations Selling To Reds

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(INS)—An iron-clad ban on U. S. military and economic aid to nations selling munitions of war to communist countries was approved today by the house foreign affairs committee.

The measure, sponsored by Rep. Battle (D. Ala.), would repeal the 1948 act which provides temporary legislation, and provides permanent, tighter and broader control over key exports.

The new amendment bans economic, but not military aid, to nations which permit strategic materials to be exported to communist countries. It permits exemptions, however, and acting under this provision President Truman recently suspended its provisions for 90 days in the case of Finland, Austria and other countries.

Battle's bill forbids any exemptions in the case of arms, ammunition, war implements and atomic energy materials. It permits the president to continue aid in the case of other commodities whenever a newly-created officer, to be known as the mutual defense assistance officer, so recommends.

New Wage Demands To Be Presented

CHICAGO, July 16.—(INS)—The CIO packinghouse workers union announced today it will seek a $3,000 minimum annual wage for its 150,000 members when negotiations start August 11 on the wage reopening clause of the contract which expires in 1952.

Ralph Heistein, union president, said the union is "determined to secure for packinghouse workers a steady income throughout the year and wipe out forever the hardships of layoffs and unemployment."

Heistein said the average packinghouse worker in the common labor classification earned $2,280 last year.

The union will seek also elimination of wage differentials between men and women workers, between various geographical areas and adjustment of wage inequities among plants also will be sought by the union.

Fifty-three consignors in ten states and Canada have entered 161 sheep of five breeds. Pennsylvania leads in consignors, with 28. New York has 7, Ohio 5, Virginia 4, Indiana and Michigan 2 each, New Jersey, Maryland, West Virginia, Connecticut and Canada will have one each.

Hampshires lead the breeds with 76. Suffolks number 46; Dorsets, 21; Shropshires, 13, and Corriedales, 5. Mrs. Frank A. Reed, Fox Chase Farm, Philadelphia, is secretary of the sale committee.

Peter C. McKenzil, Camp Hill, former livestock superintendent at the Pennsylvania State College, will do the judging and sifting Tuesday afternoon, July 10. Only animals of stud quality will be admitted to the sale.

Ewes will be sold Wednesday morning, July 11, at 10:00 o'clock, the rams at 1:00 p.m. David H. Williams, Hickory, Washington county, will be auctioneer. Ringmen will include Guy Hilton, Lexington, Ky., of the Sheepman Magazine, and Ewing J. A. Christian, extension livestock specialist of the Pennsylvania State College, who helped in selecting many of the entries, will assist with the sale.

MAKE READY FOR GRAIN STORAGE

Insects and other sources of damage cause a loss of from five to ten per cent of the national grain crop each year. Most of this loss can be prevented if graneries and bins are cleaned and made ready for grain storage.

Steps in reducing loss are:

1. Be sure that the roof is tight.
2. Carefully sweep and dispose of all old accumulations of grain.
3. Treat bins by painting or spraying with 5 per cent DDT in odorless kerosene (ordinary household DDT). Use about two quarts in the average size bin. Allow it to dry before putting grain in the bin.
4. Use only tight bins, so grain can be fumigated if necessary.
5. Store only dry grain. High moisture favors breeding of grain insects.
6. Be sure bags used for grain are clean and free from insects.
7. Inspect stored grain often, and fumigate at the first sign of insects.

Additional information on the prevention of damage may be secured from the Agricultural Extension Office, 206 Post Office Building, New Castle. "Protect Stored Grain from Insects" is the name of this publication.

POULTRY RANGE NEEDS PROPER MANAGEMENT

The care given to the poultry range definitely affects its value to the pullets. First of all, estimate the number of pullets per acre the range can carry during the normal season.

If the range has more birds per acre than it can carry the green feed supply soon may be destroyed. A well-established Ladino clover range will support 500 to 600 pullets per acre until fall. The number of pullets per acre should be reduced during the fall months because the range does not have the carrying capacity then that it has during the normal growing season.

Many poultrymen formerly moved their summer shelters three or four times a year, but many have now discontinued this practice. Each time the shelter is moved a new base spot appears on the range. Instead of moving the shelters, move the feeders and drinking fountains at least once a week to encourage the birds to range farther away from the shelters. Scatter the scratch feed, if not fed in hoppers, in a different place at each feeding for the same reason.

The range, particularly Ladino clover and bluegrass, should be clipped several times a season to keep the forage in a succulent vegetative condition and prevent the formation of unpalatable seedheads of grass. In the case of Ladino clover it should be mowed as often as the growth becomes five or six inches high. The mower should be set to cut about three inches high.

All holes made in the range by the birds should be filled for water may accumulate in them during a storm. These wet places are ideal for the development of disease germs or parasite eggs. A poultry range properly cared for can supply considerable good feed for the poultry and also be a factor in reducing some of the poultryman's troubles.

Princess Elizabeth Becomes Slimmer

LONDON, July 16.—(INS)—The London Daily Express reported today that Princess Elizabeth has become "sensationally slimmer" during the last three months as the result of a diet she is following on television.

The paper said the heiress to the throne started dieting because of a joking remark made by her husband, Prince Philip, about "the craze for slimming."

Friends estimated that the Princess has lost some 25 pounds and now weighs about 115.

Drag River Near Kittanning For Bodies Of Two Men

KITTANNING, Pa., July 16.—(INS)—Volunteer firemen dragged the Allegheny river near Kittanning today in the hope of finding the bodies of two Pittsburgh men believed to have gone over a dam in their motorboat.

The men sought are Emil Yentsch, 35, and Carl A. Bevelacqua, 18, who failed to return yesterday from a fishing trip up the Allegheny river.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Wyant of Adrian, R. D. 1 told state police they heard a motor boat shortly after midnight Sunday and believe it went over dam No. 8.

Later, a boat was found by two fishermen and a wallet left in it led to identification of the missing men.

In Pittsburgh, relatives of the men said the two had left Saturday for a fishing trip in the upper Allegheny.

The men's families believe from a description of the boat found that it is the one in which the fishermen set out.

LAND AT LIBERTY STATUS

NEW YORK, July 16.—(INS)—A group of displaced persons from Greece were accorded an unique honor today — they became the first immigrants in U. S. history to land at the Statue of Liberty.

The 32 made a special request to set foot on American soil for the first time at Bedloe's Island, site of the statue.

A delegation of prominent Greek-Americans from the Ahepa displaced persons committee forwarded the request to immigration authorities.

When the transport Nea Hellas entered New York Bay, three small craft pulled alongside and took the 32 new arrivals to the statue.

They came from nearly every province in Greece.

IN GOOD HEALTH

KAESONG, July 16.—(INS)—A Communist correspondent at the Kaesong, truce talks said today that an American news photographer captured in the Korean fighting by Chinese Communists was in good health when he saw him two months ago.

The Communist correspondent, who gave his name as "Pang," said that the Reds are holding "many" allied correspondents.

The only one he identified was Frank Noel, Associated Press photographer.

Pang said he knew "Captain" Noel, a captain's rank is accorded to newsmen under the Geneva convention covering war prisoners.

Not so long ago

It wasn't long ago that a nickel would bring you a hot dog with all the trimmings at almost any roadside stand. Today, it's apt to be 15 cents.

Don't blame the man who serves 'em up. Blame the dollar. The dollar buys less today than ever before.

We are feeling the pinch, too.

The cost of supplies and equipment used in the telephone business is going up and up, just like the cost of supplies and equipment for other businesses.

In spite of this, we have been able to provide good, low-cost telephone service that continues to grow in value.

Even if it should cost more, your telephone service, in comparison with other things, would still be a big, big bargain.

Alfred Hawkins Named Industrial Division Head

ALFRED S. HAWKINS

Alfred S. Hawkins, assistant manager of the Bossert plant, has been appointed chairman of the important industrial division of the coming Community Chest campaign, it was announced today by Harry W. Bowen, general chairman of the 1951-52 campaign.

Following the appointment, Mr. Hawkins immediately named H. M. Fenati, president of the Fenati Brick Co., Inc., co-chairman of the industrial division. Mr. Fenati served in this capacity during last year's campaign and did an outstanding piece of work.

Mr. Hawkins and Mr. Fenati will cooperate with Donald E. Brown, secretary of the Lawrence County Industrial Union Council and Alfred J. Mascaro, president of the Lawrence County Central Labor Union. The latter two men are general co-chairmen for the campaign in October.

These four men will meet in the near future to begin the preliminary planning to make the industrial division one of the strongest in this year's Community Chest campaign for New Castle and vicinity.

Ask Traffic Light At Division And Moravia Streets

Committee, representing thousands of employees of the United Engineering & Foundry company, Monday, asked council to erect a traffic light at Division and Moravia street, which would operate during the periods when shifts change at the plant.

They pointed out there is great danger to pedestrians at the point. They pointed out also that at certain periods of the day there is heavy traffic from the south, and also from the north.

They said that until a light could be erected, they would appreciate a traffic policeman stationed at the suggested point from 7:30 a.m. until 8 a.m. and from 3:30 p.m. until 4 p.m.

Mayor John F. Haven said that he would give quick consideration to the request. He said the police department is short of men at present owing to vacations and illness, but indicated something would be done to solve the situation.

Rev. Milligan Heard At Union Service

Rev. Dale K. Milligan, pastor of the Highland United Presbyterian church, was the speaker Sunday evening, during the regular weekly union services of the churches of New Castle at Epworth Methodist church.

The service attracted nearly 300 churchgoers who turned out to hear the new Highland pastor. Dr. Robert F. Galbreath, pastor of the First Presbyterian church was in charge of the service and directed the musical portion of the program.

Special vocal selection was given by Edward Book, director of music at the Highland church.

Rev. Milligan chose as his theme, the thought woven around the idea of the individual's responsibility to the church. He emphasized the fact that if each would do his or her part in the church, much would be accomplished in the strengthening of the church in these days of trouble.

The services are sponsored by the Ministerium and Council of Churches.

Presents Flags At V.F.W. Encampment

Mrs. Lillian Davis of 1013 Winslow avenue, has returned from the V.F.W. Encampment in Philadelphia, where she had the honor of presenting two American flags to be used in two American shrines in the coming days.

Mrs. Davis, patriotic instructor of the local V.F.W. auxiliary, presented the first flag to Harry T. Jenkins, Sr., chaplain of the Chapel of the Four Chaplains who gave their lives in World War II and will be used in the Chapel local in Temple church, Philadelphia. The chaplain made an excellent acceptance speech.

The second flag was presented to Dennis Kurjac, historian of the National Park service and will be used in Independence Hall in commemoration of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Mr. Kurjac graciously accepted the flag with appropriate words.

INJURES FOOT
Leroy Sater, of Gretchen avenue, was treated at the Jameson Memorial hospital at 2:45 a.m. Sunday, for injuries of the great toe of the left foot, received when he dropped a cement block on his foot, while unloading a truck.

Maureen Riley Wins Tournament

Miss Maureen Riley won the handicap golf tournament held July 10, 11, 12 and 13 at the New Castle Country club, winning from her sister Kathleen, in the finals.

Mrs. Roy Preston won the consolation award from Mrs. David Perry.

The lady golfers have been invited to play at the Butler Country club on Tuesday, July 17, and will journey to the Sharon Country club to play on July 19. On July 24, they will play at the Wanango Country club, Reno, Pa., and on July 31 they have been invited to play at the Beaver Valley and Ellwood City Country clubs. Members are asked to make reservations two days in advance of each date with Mrs. James Foster.

Members will also play at the New Castle Country club on Thursday, July 19. A "blind partner's" tournament will be featured instead of the Red and White team play which has been postponed until Thursday, July 26.

Miss Clara Hartsuff won low gross and low net for the field at the golfing event held Thursday, July 12, at the Grove City Country club, with several lady golfers from the local club in attendance.

FRACTURES FOOT
Mrs. Lena Cassella, of 826 S. Mill street, was admitted to the Jameson Memorial hospital for treatment of a fracture of the left foot, received late Saturday morning, when she fell down a flight of stairs at her home.

Eight Fugitives Are Back In Jail

EUTAW, Ala., July 16.—(INS)—Eight prisoners who took over the county jail in Eutaw were behind bars today and their jailer, who blamed himself for the escape, was recovering from a suicide attempt.

The prisoners broke out of their cells yesterday—with the aid of a knife—and seized possession of the jail.

However, 15 carloads of highway patrolmen quickly surrounded the captured prison and Deputy Sheriff Bill Lee, former all-American football player at Alabama, convinced seven of the inmates to surrender.

The eighth prisoner, Jack Banta of New Orleans, fled and hitchhiked seven miles away before he tried to get a ride with a state policeman, who returned him to town.

Roosevelt McShan, the jailer, slashed his throat twice afterwards because he was despondent over the escape. His wounds were said to be slight.

FALL CAUSES INJURY
Mrs. Ione Mason, of Highland avenue extension, was treated at the Jameson Memorial hospital at 7 p.m. Sunday, for an injury of the left wrist, received in a fall at her home. Examination at the hospital revealed no fracture.

A's Down White Sox Twice; Legion Plays Chewton-Wampum Tonight

Red Sox, Yankees, Indians Split; Dodgers Lose Pair

By JOHN BARRINGTON
(L.N.S. Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, July 16.—(INS)—The Philadelphia Athletics are merely bystanders in the American League pennant race, but it's hard to convince the Chicago White Sox that there's anything innocent about the A's.

A couple of Jimmy Dykes' less prosperous pitchers gave the White Sox the business but good yesterday, knocking them over in a doubleheader, 3 to 1 and 5 to 0, and plunged the Sox into just about their worst plight of the season.

The double loss at the hands of the A's Bob Hooper and Sam Zoldak was the fourth and fifth in their last six starts for the White Sox, and it enabled the Boston Red Sox to open up two games of daylight in the first place.

Hooper, a 29-year-old right-hander, used his bat as well as his arm to subdue the Sox. He unaided a three-run homer in the ninth to beat Randy Gumpert, although the A's were out, 10 to 6.

It was the third victory over Chicago for Hooper, who has won only four while losing seven.

One Hitter For Zoldak

Zoldak, much traveled southpaw veteran, didn't even need to bat to gain his third win of the year. He held the Sox to only one hit, a third-inning single by Chico Carrasquel.

Chico, incidentally, broke the American League record for consecutive chances without an error by a shortstop. He has handled 289 in 51 games, breaking Phil Rizzuto's year-old mark of 288 in 58 games.

The Red Sox added to their league lead by splitting with the Browns. Ned Garver—who now has won half of the St. Louis total of 24 successes—defeated the Bostonians, 3 to 1, on five hits in the opener.

Rae Scarborough staggered to his sixth win in the nightcap, 9 to 5.

Yankees-Indians Split

Third-place New York and fourth-place Cleveland kept pace with the Red Sox and each other by splitting also. The Yankees lost to Detroit's Fred Hutchinson, 5 to 3, despite Yogi Berra's 13th homer. They won the second contest, 8 to 7, with no-hit Allie Reynolds coming in to quell a ninth-inning disturbance.

Cleveland lost to Washington's Connie Marrero, 7 to 4, but came back with a 7-to-2 win behind Mike Garcia.

The Brooklyn Dodgers lost their second straight double-header as Cincinnati jolted them, 5 to 2 and 6 to 5. Although the Dodgers still are eight games in front of the National League, there was room for worry in the way the flock's Preacher Roe and Johnny Schmitz fared.

Roe, the gopher ball expert, was beaten by, of all things, the first homer of Ewell Blackwell's career. That one and another by Connie Ryan brought Blackie his ninth win and Roe his second loss against 12 triumphs.

Musial Hits 17th And 18th

Schmitz was knocked off the hill under a five-run assault in the seventh after having things well under control to that point.

The St. Louis Cardinals hung on to second place by two percentage points. The Redbirds took their first game with Philadelphia, 7 to 4, in a game marked by six homers—including Stan Musial's 17th and 18th. The Phils won the afterpiece, 6 to 4.

The New York Giants also broke even. Ery Dusk's 12th-inning single brought Pittsburgh a 7-to-6 win in the first game, while Jim Hearn pitched an 8-to-3 triumph in the second.

Boston's Warren Spahn white-washed Chicago, 7 to 0, for his fifth shutout of the year, but the Cubs bounced back, 10 to 4, in the nightcap. Hank Sauer hit his third homer in two days and his 14th of the season.

Farm Mickey Mantle Out To Kansas City

DETROIT, July 16.—(INS)—Nineteen-year-old rookie Mickey Mantle, hailed by the New York Yankees as the eventual successor to Joe DiMaggio, was farmed out to Kansas City today for more experience.

Mantle, who jumped all the way from class C to the world champions, is subject to 24-hour recall. Mickey was leading the club in runs batted in with 45 and had seven homers. However, his batting average was only .260 and he fanned 52 times.

New York manager Casey Stengel said "all Mickey needs is experience."

Mantle said: "It's all right with me. I'd rather play every day in the minors than sit on the Yankee bench. Nobody has to tell me that I've got plenty to learn about outfielding and hitting."

HERE and THERE IN SPORTS LAND

LEWIS PERRETTA, theatrical man, Joe Felice of Liberty street, John Lombardo, R.D. 7, Peter Russo, Liberty street and Angelo Piccarollo, South La Fayette street, have returned from a fishing trip to Wisconsin. They caught some nice wall-eyes with casting and fly-roads. Small-mouth bass fishing was spotty, owing to rain. Weather caused wool clothing to be worn. The party motored from their Manitowish camp to Black River Harbor, Mich., where they caught five lake trout, trolling with metal spoons on Lake Superior. The two largest were 10 and 8 pounds, and three weighed three pounds, each. Joe Felice caught a 10 pound Muskie. Peter Russo, however, came through with a 27 1/2 pound Muskie which was 46 inches long. It was caught at 10 p. m. June 26, with a surface lure. It is now in a deep freeze. Ezzard Charles will retain his world's heavyweight championship against Jersey Joe Walcott Wednesday, in Pittsburgh.

Henry Firpo, the former middleweight of Louisville, who fought many stirring fights in the Jolly Bowl, while visiting in Cleveland, telephoned Here & There last week, saying "Give New Castle my 'Hello'."

Two hours later, Here & There met George Perotta, now a GE policeman, at Erie. Here & There discussed George's two losing fights with Firpo. Firpo is employed in a night club, having resigned as Louisville policeman. Benny Rowbottom of Redlands, Calif., visited here last week. While here he was taken on a fishing trip to Lake Erie by George Watters.

Billy Frenkel, a night previous to his taking a plane back to California. Mrs. Ayers, mother-in-law of Jimmie Dunn, formerly of New Castle, now of Las Vegas Nev., died and was buried in Cleveland a week ago.

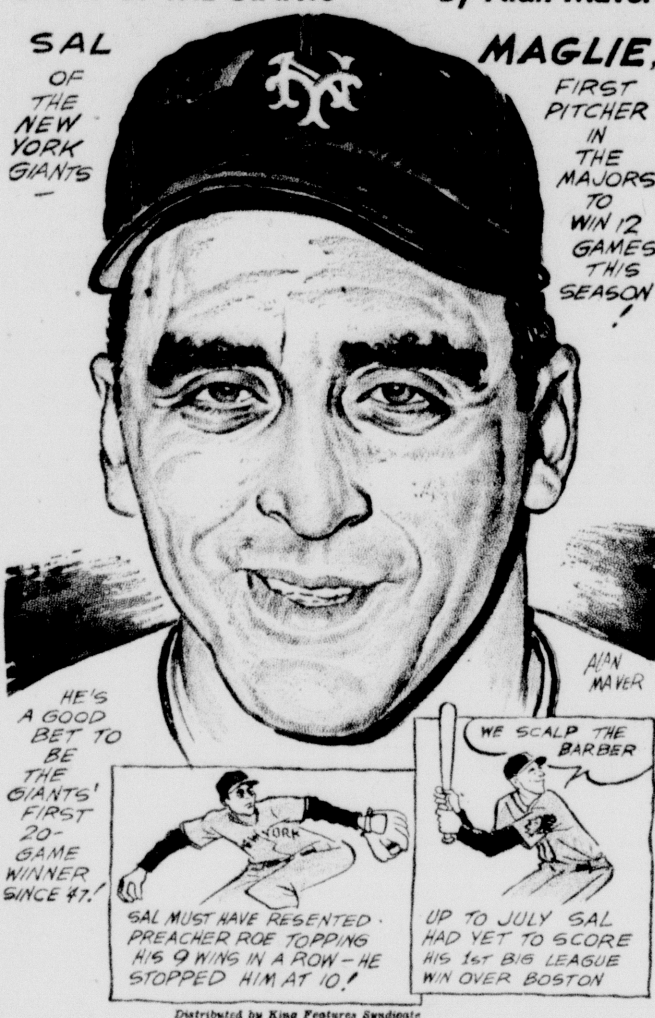

KARL WRIGHT former local B. & O. policeman, now an official in the railroad's police service at Baltimore, visited here last week. Aubrey Morrison of Boston, a salesman for the U-R company, spent several days here last week. He studied at Westminster college.

Here & There conversed with Kerwin Lewis, formerly of the local Bosses plant here. Kerwin resides near Sharon. He is a nephew of Joe Williams. Jerry Carangi watches Frank Jerry as Frank toe and heels along U. S. Route 422 for walking contests.

Joe Caldaro, Hillsville ball player, has been hitting and fielding balls for 15 years. Despite his lengthy service, he does well. Frankie Moran, a Turnpike construction worker. He works, clad only in shoes and bathing trunks and he is as brown as a berry. He intends to resume training soon. Reports say Johnny Locisano of Ellwood City, is in the auto selling game. Joe Isabella was up from Miami, Fla., last week. George Lewis recalled the days of the Interstate League when it played games to capacity crowds on South Mill street grounds. Rocky Marciano's defeat of Rex Layne will earn him a chance at Ezzard Charles, some time in the future. However, promoters are missing a bet. They ought to pit Rocky against Harry Matthews who also defeated Layne. Indications are that Britisher Turpin and Ray Robinson will box to a capacity crowd in New York in the fall. Turpin upset the dope when he beat Robinson who was handicapped by a severe cut above an eye.

William J. Sokovitz, and son Ronald Thomas Sokovitz of Beckford street, New Castle, and Johnny McConnell of Oak street, New Castle, have returned from Martin River, North Bay, Ontario, Canada, after spending a week there. They caught four and five-pound bass and their limit of pickerel and northern pike. Cy Williams, scout for the Detroit Tigers, visited Here & There and said all young ball players were invited to participate in the Tiger clinic at Sharon, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Several local ball players will attend the try-outs.

Indians Drop Pair At Erie But Hold Onto Third Place

(Special To The News)

ERIE—The Indians dropped a couple of toughies to Erie's league leading Sailors Saturday and Sunday with low hit mound efforts by Ken Geer and Bill Ciske going to waste.

The Sailors won a 5-3 verdict Saturday night and came back for a 4-3 nod Sunday afternoon.

Ciske's loss to Paul Gilmartin, who captured his 11th triumph and fourth against New Castle was the more disheartening of the two. Ciske granted only five hits to seven by Gilmartin and pitched no-hit ball for four innings.

The veteran right-hander was working on a 2-0 lead by virtue of Ben Rossman's two run homer over the left field fence in the second. But Erie slapped him for four hits and three runs in the fifth.

Ollie Echevarria opened with a triple and scored on Gilmartin's bunt single after Pete Francek walked. Ciske retired the next two batters but Willie Grace and Jack Byers raked him for run scoring singles.

In the next inning third baseman Chet Butler turned Eli Russos grounder into a three base throw, error, Russo scored what became the winning run on an out-field fly.

Milnar Gets Thumb

New Castle Manager Al Milnar was kicked off the field by Umpire Mel Manning in the eighth when New Castle slugged Erie's lead to one run on Ted Toles' double and Bill Green's single. Walt Kowalski lined down the third base line. The ball bounced into foul territory, but Milnar maintained it hit the bag before it did. His insistence brought him a ticket to the clubhouse.

In other games in the league Butler downed Oil City three straight times by one-run margins and Lockport and Niagara Falls split a pair.

In spite of the double loss, the Indians held onto third place in the league standings. They wind up their three-game series at Erie tonight and then travel to Niagara Falls for an important series.

Al Tate Named To '51 College All-Star Squad

Al Tate, former New Castle high school and more recently University of Illinois football great, has been selected to play in the eighteenth annual All-Star football games at Soldiers Field in Chicago on August 17.

On the night the best talent in the collegiate ranks during the past season will play the Cleveland Browns, champions of the National Football league, in the annual game.

Al received a letter from Arch Wards, sports editor of the Chicago Tribune and daddy of the All-Star game, asking him to join the All-Star squad at St. John's Military Academy, Delafield, Wisconsin, on July 26.

This year's All-Star team will be in charge of Herman Hickman, head football coach at Yale. Hickman will be assisted by Bob Voigts of Northwestern, George Sauer of Baylor, Andy Gustafson of Miami and Bowden Wyatt of Wyoming.

Tate is one of the finest linemen to come out of New Castle high school, and was named a tackle position on several All-American teams during the past season.

He was drafted by the San Francisco Forty-Niners professional football team for next season. Tate has indicated, however, that he will accept a position in Chicago.

Back to St. Louis?

ACCORDING to reports, Rogers Hornsby, one-time National league batting star and now manager of Seattle in the Pacific Coast league, may get the job as manager of the St. Louis Browns, recently purchased by Bill Veeck and associates. Hornsby managed Browns from 1933 to 1937. (International)

Penn State's opening football game against Boston university September 29 will be the 530th since the Nittany Lions first adopted the sport in 1897. State's all-time record shows 319 wins, 178 defeats and 32 ties.

Turpin-Robinson Rematch Sept. 12

LONDON, July 16.—(INS)—Promoter Jack Solomons, who arranged the fight in which Randy Turpin lifted the world's middleweight crown from Sugar Ray Robinson, said today they will fight a return match in New York at the Polo grounds on Sept. 12.

Solomons said that he completed negotiations with the International Boxing club, which holds an exclusive contract on Robinson's services, early this morning.

The dusky Briton scored a decisive victory over Robinson when he outpointed him in a 15-round bout on July 10 which was to have been the successful climax to the New York fighter's European "exhibition" tour.

Meet Tonight At YMCA To Discuss Benefit Game Plans

All those holding book tickets to the benefit game scheduled Friday night between the All Stars and Teamsters are asked to report to YMCA tonight at 8:30 in a meeting planned for league officials.

Also to be discussed tonight are plans for the second annual all star district tournament. Teams desiring entry should contact Norm Rhodes of New Castle, 7828-M.

Friday's benefit game is to be played by J. Parillo, local player injured in playing with Bossert.

Sonny Grandellus, Michigan State's All-American halfback in 1950, was the school's first winner of the Western Conference medal, given annually to the athlete attaining top proficiency both scholastically and athletically.

New York Stocks

Stock Market

Trend Confused

NEW YORK, July 16.—(INS)—The stock market turned in a highly confused performance today.

Selected issues scored sharp advances, but there were many important stocks which showed sagging tendencies. Traders were inclined to move cautiously as they sought to interpret the market significance of the latest developments pertaining to a possible Korean cease-fire and as regards Iran.

American Cyanamid continued its sensational performance in the chemicals, soaring 3 points to a new high at 118, on top of a gain of 8 1/2 points last week. Rohm & Haas was up 2 1/2 points to 142 1/2.

Mixed price trends dominated the pivotal list. U. S. Steel was off 1/4 at 40 1/4. Chrysler was unchanged at 69 1/4. DuPont up 3/4 at 95 1/4. General Motors off 1/4 at 49.

Bethlehem Steel up 3/4 at 51 3/4. Kennecott Copper up 1/4 at 73 1/4 and Republic Steel off 1/2 at 38 3/4.

Many key oils eased. Standard of New Jersey was off 1/4 at 63. Socony Vacuum was off 3/4 at 39 and Sinclair was down 1/2 at 39 1/2.

Radio Corporation rose 1/4 to a new high in the television group, in sharp contrast to Zenith which slumped 1 1/2 at 58 1/2.

Northern Pacific was a strong spot in a spotty rail list, gaining 1 1/4 points to 42 1/4. Kansas City Southern rose 1 1/2 at 58 1/2, but Santa Fe was down 5/8 at 152, and New York Central was off 1/4 at 16 1/8.

At 11 a. m. the Dow-Jones industrial average was off 10 cents, the rails were up one cent and utilities were up six cents.

Volume for the first hour totaled 260,000 shares, the same as on Friday.

County Council P.T.A. To Meet Wednesday Night

In connection with the leadership school held at Slippery Rock college from July 9 to 13, the Lawrence County Council P.T.A. plans follow-up sessions. The sessions will be a series of group discussions and a fall training program. A special meeting has been called for this reason. The Lawrence County Council P.T.A. will meet Monday, July 23, in the YWCA at 8 o'clock. Plans for these sessions will be made at that time, it was announced today by Mrs. Paul Bees, secretary. Mrs. Harold Hunt, president, will be in charge of the meeting.

YOUTHS FLEE DRAFT

PENANG, Malaya—Three hundred and fifty youths who faced conscription under Malaya's call-up provisions sailed for Canton by ship while another group of 200 is expected to move out in an other vessel within a week or more.
